

Leadership is practiced not so much in words as in attitude and in actions.

-- Harold S. Green

Who can nominate an individual for the Leaders of Tomorrow Award?

- YOU – that’s who!
- Individuals, community groups, educational institutions, and voluntary organizations are all invited to nominate a young individual who deserve recognition for their commitment and leadership in assisting others
- The nominator must be a resident of the City of Wetaskiwin, County of Wetaskiwin, Town of Millet, or Maskwacis
- Only two nominations per age category per nominating organization/individual are allowed

Why should you nominate a young volunteer leader for this award?

- It is way to say “thank-you” and show your appreciation
- It validates their leadership efforts and is a good self-esteem booster
- It inspires the spirit of volunteerism and development of leadership skills in themselves and others
- It provides you with the opportunity to put positive role models in the limelight

How do you nominate?

- Complete all sections of the nomination form,
- Provide a one page description of your nominee’s leadership qualities and volunteer service that made you want to nominate them, and
- Have the nominee’s guardian or the nominee (if 18+) sign the form. Be sure to let the nominee know why you nominated them and that the committee will contact them for additional information.

- Complete the above and submit by 4:30 P.M. on February 21, 2019.

How are the nominees honoured?

- All nominees are honoured and recognized individually at the Awards Ceremony, which is held on April 8, 2019 at the Reynolds-Alberta Museum

All Nominees will receive:

- Individual recognition at the Awards Ceremony,
- A professional group photo, which is taken at the Awards Ceremony,
- A certificate of recognition,
- A keepsake copy of their nomination biography,
- A USB drive loaded with leadership resources,
- A Leaders of Tomorrow Awards T-shirt, and
- A free one day leadership opportunity, which will be held in May 2019.

An Award Representative will be selected for each age category, these individuals will also receive:

- 3 professional 5” x 7” group photographs,
- An engraved trophy,
- A certificate of award, and
- $100.00 to present to the non-profit organization of their choice.

Who do I call if I have questions?
