Where AUC approval is required for on-site power generation, such approval shall be obtained prior to the issuance of a Development Permit. Where AUC approval is not required, the applicant shall demonstrate compliance with applicable provincial legislation and confirm that the power generation qualifies for an exemption. Power generation with a total capacity of less than 1 megawatt (MW) may be exempt from AUC approval, subject to provincial requirements

9.21 Data Processing Facility (Major) (amended by bylaw 2026/16)

- 9.21.1. In addition to the development permit application requirements of Section 10, where an application is required for a Data Processing Facility (Data Centre), the Development Authority shall require submission of information and studies necessary to assess impacts on human health, environmental health, and adjacent land uses, including but not limited to:
- a. A biophysical impact assessment;
 - b. A noise impact assessment;
 - c. A hazard assessment, including fuel storage and hazardous materials; and
 - d. A cumulative impact assessment for phased, expanding, or large-scale developments.
- 9.21.2. All Data Processing Facility (Data Centre) developments shall be designed to mitigate off-site nuisance impacts, including noise, lighting, odour, traffic, dust, and vibration, to the satisfaction of the Development Authority. Monitoring measures may be required as a condition on approval.
- 9.21.3. Where a Data Processing Facility includes a power plant or significant power generation infrastructure, a minimum setback of 1,500 metres from an existing dwelling shall apply. This setback may be reduced with a variance where a noise impact assessment and mitigation plan demonstrate acceptable impacts to the satisfaction of the Development Authority.
- 9.21.4. In evaluating an application, the Development Authority shall consider proximity to sensitive uses, including environmental features, daycares, schools, health care facilities, supportive living facilities, and residential uses of any kind
- 9.21.5. If a Data Processing Facility (Data Centre) includes on-site power generation to supply electricity, it may be subject to AUC approval. Where AUC approval is required for on-site power generation, such approval shall be obtained prior to the issuance of a Development Permit. Where AUC approval is not required, the applicant shall demonstrate compliance with applicable provincial legislation and confirm that the power generation qualifies for an exemption. Power generation with a total capacity of less than 1 megawatt (MW) may be exempt from AUC approval, subject to provincial requirements

10.6 Discretionary Use Assessment Criteria

10.6.1. The following outlines the potential impacts that could be assessed and the information the County may require to form part of an application.

IMPACT: VISUAL APPEARANCE

Sometimes, buildings and structures are designed where they do not fit with the surrounding form or landscape and become unappealing or diminish the surrounding community. Regulating the design of buildings can be challenging in balancing an individual's freedoms and being part of a community. To balance this challenge, applications may be required to provide information to understand how a building will fit within its surrounding neighbourhood.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Elevation drawings.
- » Exterior material information, including colours.
- » Pictures of the properties surrounding the site.
- » Distance to public spaces, including a public road.
- » Proposed mitigation measures to limit the potential impacts on the surrounding community.

VISUAL APPEARANCE REQUIREMENTS

Elevations of commercial buildings that face a public road or public space shall, at a minimum:

- » Not consist of blank walls;
- » Use trim around all doors and windows with variations in colour, material and/or depth to make the façade visually interesting;
- » Be broken up through the use of variations in depth of the façade, use of trim and use of colours/tactile materials; and
- » Elevations facing a public road or public space should consist of at least 10% windows disbursed over the façade.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT THE VISUAL APPEARANCE HAS ON THE COMMUNITY?

- » How the scale of the building fits into the overall community.
- » How the façade of the building interfaces with the public realm.
- » How the building elements are used to break up the form and bulk of the structure.

IMPACT: TRAFFIC/ACCESS

Regardless of the type or form of development, any development will inevitably result in an increase in traffic and may impact safety and the existing road infrastructure. An increase in traffic has two main consequences; first, it has impacts on the movement of goods, services and people, and second, it can impact roadway design (and subsequent cost) if the roads predominantly used weren't built to a standard to handle the increase in, or vehicle type, of traffic.

Owners also have a responsibility to provide safe loading to occur on-site to avoid stopping or slowing the flow of traffic along a public road. Access to a site is also important to avoid conflicts between traffic and functional movement of vehicles and pedestrians between varying spaces. It is important to balance the site specific and broader potential impacts related to how access is provided to a site.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Intensity of the proposed development (i.e. number of on-site employees, frequency and number of visitors, frequency and number of deliveries, the types of vehicles being used, etc.).
- » Information on access locations and widths to assess the safety of vehicular movement to and from the site in relation to the road and neighbouring properties.
- » A plan showing the location and layout of on-site parking and/or loading area in context to buildings on adjacent properties.
- » The material used for parking surfaces.
- » A Traffic Impact Assessment (TIA) prepared by a qualified professional that identifies the impact traffic has on the service level of the road network, and the design of access and safety of egress and ingress to and from a site where the traffic is being generated.

TRAFFIC REQUIREMENTS

- » The increase in traffic shall not cause significant safety concerns to the surrounding community.
- » The increase in traffic should not significantly impact the overall road function based on the design level of service.
- » The increase of traffic should not unduly undermine the structure and/or integrity of existing bridges, culverts, and roads.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT TRAFFIC HAS ON THE COMMUNITY?

- » Disruption to existing traffic patterns and the scale of parking in relationship to established residential dwellings.
- » Based on the recommendations regarding safety and capacity of the road network in the TIA.
- » Potential long-term impacts on the structural integrity of the overall road infrastructure.

IMPACT: NOISE

Various land uses can generate noise that can be of nuisance to adjacent lands or even extend into the wider community beyond what might be anticipated. Example 1: A 24/7 industrial operation next to a campground. The industrial operation is very noisy, and campers quickly catch on resulting in fewer visitors. Example 2: in a country residential community, a neighbour is a semi-truck driver. On very cold evenings, the truck needs to run throughout the night, resulting in neighbours having an interrupted sleep.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Noise Assessment (acoustical analysis).

NOISE REQUIREMENTS

- » Any noise generated shall not cause significant safety concerns to the surrounding community.
- » Any noise generated shall not cause people’s sleep to be disrupted on a continuous basis.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT NOISE HAS ON THE COMMUNITY?

- » Measurement of noise generated by a potential use when measured from a dwelling on an adjoining property.
- » As a guideline the following noise levels should not be exceeded when measured from the exterior to a residential dwelling, hospital or school:

HOURS OF OPERATION	DECIBEL LEVELS (DBA)
7am – 7pm	65 dBA
7pm – 7am	50 dBA

IMPACT: ODOUR

Land uses that generate toxic odours, such as landfills and confined feeding lots, are often regulated by provincial bodies - and aren’t managed through a Land Use Bylaw. However, unassuming uses, such as waste receptacles areas, breweries, or even restaurants can generate undesirable odours. While not overly concerning for those passing by, it can be of nuisance for adjacent landowners, especially if the odour is consistent.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Information regarding venting location and type of venting/ air filtration to address potential odours.
- » Demonstration of how they will limit or eliminate odours on the surrounding community.
- » An odour/ volatile organic compounds (VOC) analysis

ODOUR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

- » Exterior air vents should be placed in areas that do not immediately face buildings or amenity areas on adjacent lands.
- » Proximity to residential dwellings, outdoor recreational spaces, and other populated areas.
- » Nature of enclosures to mitigate odours.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT ODOUR HAS ON THE COMMUNITY?

- » Through reviewing case studies and where possible visiting other uses to understand the nature of the odour to assist in determining the impact on adjoining properties.
- » Recommendations arising from a technical odour analysis completed by a qualified professional in the field of odours should such a study be required.

IMPACT: LIGHT

Light pollution is a consequence of human-made sources of light – whether it be from a building, a vehicle, streetlights, etc. – that can have a disruptive effect on the surrounding environment. This could impact residential homes, change the natural landscape or affect the ability to view the stars.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Illumination plan showing the location and direction of exterior lights, including showing the lux levels of the lighting.
- » The time of day and duration that the exterior lighting is anticipated to be illuminated.
- » Information on the lighting product type.

LIGHTING REQUIREMENTS

- » Exterior lighting shall not have an adverse impact on adjacent lands. Applicants are required to outline proposed mitigation methods used to limit the impact on adjacent lands and the wider County community.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT LIGHTING HAS ON THE COMMUNITY?

- » The impact lighting spill has or glow within the context of the wider community where the illumination is established based on the lux levels.
- » Impact of light spill on adjoining properties based on the lux levels.
- » The scale of the area being illuminated in relationship to the overall community.

IMPACT: DUST

In rural municipalities most driveways, parking areas and some municipal roads are unpaved. During summer/dry periods, vehicles driving on unpaved roads can generate dust that can be a nuisance to homeowners, businesses and the general public. Front yard setbacks in rural areas are often larger than in urban areas to reduce the impact dust has on a dwelling.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » The location of unpaved or non-vegetated areas in relationship to neighbouring residential areas.
- » Any materials that may be placed on the ungravelled or non-vegetated areas, if any.
- » Potential traffic volumes.
- » Direction of prevailing winds.
- » Methods to control dust e.g. watering during dry periods.

DUST REQUIREMENTS

- » Dust generated by a proposed use should not have an adverse impact on adjacent lands that would be greater than what is permitted under the district. Applicants are required to outline proposed mitigation methods used to limit the impact on adjacent lands and the wider County community.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT DUST HAS ON THE COMMUNITY?

- » Identify the potential location where dust could be generated and where it may travel and its affect on adjoining properties.

IMPACT: VIBRATION

Some industrial operations can cause ground vibration that can be felt kilometres away. Apart from feeling like the world is constantly rumbling, vibrations can have detrimental effects that can cause foundations to crack on buildings and infrastructure, which typically have a costly price tag to fix. Heavy trucks can create vibration, which depending on the community in which it occurs, can have an impact on the community and their infrastructure. Vibration can also have an impact on the natural environment that can affect wildlife, and their habitats.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

A Vibration Analysis prepared by a qualified professional to gauge the potential impact on the following:

- » Infrastructure within the vicinity of the vibration (roads, water, power, telecommunications, oil and gas pipelines, etc.).
- » Foundations and the structural integrity of any buildings within the vicinity of the vibration.
- » The level of vibration that may be experienced by a residential dwelling within proximity to the use.
- » The potential impact on the natural landscape, such as slopes within the vicinity of the vibration.

VIBRATION REQUIREMENTS

- » Vibrations generated by a proposed use shall not have an adverse impact on adjacent lands or on the wider County community. Applicants are required to outline proposed mitigation methods to limit the impact of vibration.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT VIBRATION HAS ON THE COMMUNITY?

- » Based on the recommendations of a technical report prepared by a qualified professional.

IMPACT: ENVIRONMENTAL

It is widely understood that land uses and development of various types and forms can have an impact on the natural environment. Understanding what that impact is, and its magnitude is critical when weighing the impact against the economic and social benefits.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Biophysical and Wetland Assessment.
- » Hydrological Analysis.
- » Geotechnical Analysis.
- » Slope Analysis.
- » Flood Plain Analysis.
- » Water Catchment Analysis.
- » Environmental Impact Assessment – Phase 1, 2, 3 and/or 4, if applicable.

ENVIRONMENTAL REQUIREMENTS

- » A proposed use should not have an adverse impact on the environment. Applicants are required to outline proposed mitigation methods to limit impacts on the environment.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT?

- » The site characteristics and nature of the development occurring will determine what level of technical report could be required. It is important to carry out a pre-application meeting with municipal administration to establish what would be expected.
- » Based on the recommendations of technical reports and analysis mentioned above carried out by a qualified professional.

IMPACT: MUNICIPAL INFRASTRUCTURE

New/ additional development may trigger an influx of pressure on existing municipal services (water, sewer/sanitary, roads and storm), that could require infrastructure upgrades, or even expansions. Similarly, new/ additional development may trigger the creation of new roadways or the upgrading of existing roadways.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Stormwater Analysis.
- » Water Analysis.
- » Sanitary Analysis.

- » Traffic Impact Assessment that includes a concept plan showing the layout of public or private roadways, with dimensions and connections to the surrounding road network and the nature of vehicles and number being used for the development/use.

MUNICIPAL INFRASTRUCTURE REQUIREMENTS

- » A proposed use should not have an adverse impact on the municipal infrastructure servicing the site and neighbouring properties. Applicants are required to outline proposed mitigation methods that limit the impact the proposed use has on municipal infrastructure.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT ON MUNICIPAL INFRASTRUCTURE?

- » Capacity of system to accommodate the increase, taking account of other planning development that the infrastructure was planned to accommodate.
- » Meeting the engineering design standards/requirements.
- » Determining what fiscal costs may be required to compensate for the impact on the infrastructure.

IMPACT: FISCAL

Residential development is typically subsidized, on average, of 3 to 1 by the non-residential tax base (industrial and commercial development). Understanding where tax dollars are invested and who they are servicing is a part of the development “go-or-no-go” equation. If a new development requires a significant amount of municipal dollars to service, but only yields a minimal tax return, is it money well spent?

The municipality has a responsibility in managing services in a responsibly fiscal manner. In some circumstances an applicant may need to carry out a fiscal impact assessment for the County to understand the impact services they inherit from the development and their fiscal capacity to maintain, operate and eventually replace in context to the tax rates generated by the development.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Fiscal Impact Assessment that assesses the fiscal impact on the municipality and its taxpayers.

FISCAL REQUIREMENTS

- » A proposed use should not have an adverse impact on the municipal servicing infrastructure.
- » Applicants are required to outline proposed mitigation methods that limit the impact the proposed use has on municipal infrastructure.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE FISCAL IMPACT IT HAS ON THE SURROUNDING COMMUNITY?

- » Based on the recommendations of an assessment to determine the impact to the taxes and operating costs of the overall development carried out by a qualified professional experienced with fiscal impacts assessments.

IMPACT: CUMULATIVE

The cumulative impact is the incremental increase over time of uses that when combined have a significant impact on a community.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE CUMULATIVE IMPACT HAS ON THE SURROUNDING COMMUNITY?

- » When assessing an application, the County shall take into account how the use/development, when combined with other same or similar use(s)/development(s), may be generating an overall significant impact on the community. This may result in the application being declined and subsequent amendment to the Land Use Bylaw and Municipal Development Plan to potentially prohibit the use in certain areas of the County.

IMPACT: SAFETY

How a development is designed may affect people's safety and increase the risk of personal injury of those in the wider community. The design of any development will need to consider ways to mitigate the risk of injury arising from the nature of the use and the design/layout of the development.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Plans showing the design and site layout of the use, including accesses.
- » Information on the nature, scale and intensity of the use.

SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

- » Identifying where potential safety risks are, and how they are being remedied, avoided or mitigated.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT SAFETY HAS ON THE SURROUNDING COMMUNITY?

- » When assessing the application, the County shall identify potential areas of risk and how they are being managed to avoid the risk from occurring.

IMPACT: COMPATABILITY WITH ADJACENT LAND USES

While there is an intent to provide flexibility in uses, there are circumstances where the nature of the use is not compatible with an existing use. This could be the result of the scale or nature of the operation in relationship to the proximity to existing or future uses of an adjoining property/ District.

WHAT INFORMATION MIGHT THE COUNTY REQUEST FROM APPLICANTS?

- » Description of the nature and scale of the use.
- » Proximity of the activity to neighbouring properties.
- » Nature of uses within the neighbouring areas.
- » Concept plan showing the layout of the use and in context to neighbouring properties.

HOW WILL THE COUNTY ASSESS THE IMPACT COMPATABILITY HAS ON THE SURROUNDING COMMUNITY?

When assessing the application, the County shall:

- » Determine if there is a significant conflict with the surrounding community.
- » The level of external impacts that may arise from the development.
- » How the use may impact the ability to develop on lands Districted for a specific use in the surrounding area.

10.7 Variance Assessment

10.7.1. Where a development proposal is located on a site that has development constraints such as steep slopes, irregular lot shape, limited development pocket, etc., or the uniqueness of the development merits the relaxation of a specific regulation to make an otherwise compliant development viable, a Development Officer may consider a variance of the development regulations in this Bylaw. Notwithstanding the above, a Development Officer shall not vary the following:

- a. Dwelling or Recreational Unit, Personal Use & Storage Density;
- b. Yard setback for a new dwelling less than 2.4 m (7.9 ft) from a property line;
- c. Cannabis related separation distances;
- d. Pipeline and waste management setbacks in the Regulation;
- e. Any provincial or federal legislated provision.

10.7.2. Fundamentally, and in accordance with the MGA, the Development Authority shall assess a variance and consider granting the variance if the proposed development:

- a. would not unduly interfere with the amenities of the neighbourhood;
- b. would not materially interfere with or affect the use, enjoyment or value of neighbouring parcels of land; and
- c. conforms with the use prescribed for that land or building in the land use Bylaw.

10.7.3. Further to Subsection 10.7.2, the Development Authority shall consider the following when assessing a development permit application or subdivision approval application that includes a variance:

VARIANCE APPLICATION CONSIDERATIONS

- a. whether the variance contradicts the MDP or any other Statutory Plan or policy
- b. whether the change significantly impacts the character of the surrounding built form
- c. whether the change significantly impacts the safety and enjoyment that may be expected by an adjoining land owner(s)
- d. whether the variance is essential to enabling the development to proceed
- e. whether the variance undermines the intent of the control
- f. whether the variance results in an impact on municipal infrastructure
- g. whether there are natural or man-made physical factors unique to the site connecting the ability to comply with the regulations

10.7.4. Should a variance be approved, the Development Authority may place conditions on the approval to mitigate the effects of the variance on adjacent properties.

10.8 Development Permit Decisions

10.8.1. The Development Authority shall make a decision on development permit applications within forty (40) days of when the application has been deemed complete in accordance with Section 10.3. If the Development Authority does not make a decision within forty (40) days, the development permit application is deemed refused, unless an extension has been agreed to in writing by both the applicant and the Development Authority.

10.8.2. Conditions of Approval

- a. The Development Authority may impose conditions to the approval of a permitted use only to ensure compliance with this Bylaw.
- b. The Development Authority may impose such conditions as deemed appropriate for the approval of a discretionary use or where a variance has been granted to mitigate a related impact.
- c. The Development Authority may require a guaranteed security to ensure the terms of a condition of approval are carried out.
- d. The Development Authority may require that the applicant enters into a development agreement:

DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT CONDITIONS

- i. construct or pay for the construction of roads, pedestrian walkways or parking areas that serve the development, or which connect the walkway with another walkway system that serves or is proposed to serve an adjacent development
- ii. install or pay for the installation of municipal servicing infrastructure
- iii. pay an off-site levy or any other cost contribution fee or levy
- iv. provide security to ensure that the terms of the agreement noted are carried out
- v. outline hours of operations
- vi. requirements to comply with plans that have been submitted as part of the application
- vii. requirements for monitoring the development
- viii. to carry out the recommendations of any supporting technical reports relating to the application
- ix. conditions related to mitigating the impacts identified through the assessment process

10.8.3. Applicants shall have twelve (12) months to start the development and two (2) years to complete the development, from the date the development permit was issued. Failure to meet these timeframes will result in the development permit being void unless the Development Authority grants an extension in accordance with Section 10.10.

10.8.4. If the development permit application is refused, the Development Authority will not accept the same development permit application for at least six (6) months following the decision, unless the proposal complies with all requirements of this Bylaw.

10.9 Notice of Decision

10.9.1. A Notice of Decision shall be provided in accordance with the following:

DEVELOPMENT PERMIT APPLICATION	FORM OF NOTICE
Approved Permitted Use	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Notice of Decision immediately sent to the applicant through regular or electronic mail, whichever the applicant indicates on their application

10.9.2. A copy of the Notice of Decision shall be sent to any authority, agency or person consulted in accordance with Section 10.5.

10.10 Development Permit Extensions

10.10.1. The Development Authority may extend periods of time related to development permit approvals as follows:

- a. development permit approval for a use or building which has not commenced within the first year of approval, and continues to conform to this Bylaw, may be extended for one (1) year;
- b. an additional extension may be granted after the second year of approval, but prior to the third year, provided the development has shown substantial progress or completion of the majority of the conditions;
- c. if a development has not been completed before the end of the second year of extension, a new development permit application will be required; and
- d. notwithstanding the above, a development permit approval where the use that would result from the development conflicts with adjacent land uses or which no longer conforms to the Bylaw must not be extended.

10.11 Development Permit Revisions

10.11.1. Applicants may revise their development permit applications at any time prior to the Development Authority referring the application to the appropriate authorities for comments. If the applicant requests revisions to the application after it has been referred, the Development Authority shall determine if the application must be resent to the appropriate authorities in order to provide the opportunity to comment on the revision prior to a decision being made.

10.12 Cancellation, Suspension or Modification of Development Permit

- 10.12.1. The Development Authority may cancel, suspend, revoke, or modify a development permit by written notice to the permit holder if, after a development permit has been approved and/or issued, the Development Authority becomes aware that:
- a. the development application contains a misrepresentation;
 - b. facts concerning the application, or the development were not disclosed which should have been disclosed at the time the application was considered;
 - c. the development permit was issued in error;
 - d. the applicant withdrew the application by way of written notice; or
